7:30pm

Netanya AACI Film " The Syrian Patient" followed by Q & A with Director/Producer Rachel Shwartz

Where: Shmuel HaNatziv St 28, Netanya

Description:

This is the untold story of heroism under dire circumstances. As the war in Syria wages on, wounded soldiers and civilians are secretly brought into Israel to be cared for. This film takes a look at the complex and moving relationships forged between former enemies as patients and doctors bond in a healing process. We follow the stories of a number of Syrians who wake up in an Israeli hospital. Where they would have once felt like they are in enemy-territory, they now recognize the humanity and hope possible. The film shows the humanity between Syrians and Israelis from a different perspective: former enemies become partners in the struggle for life. After our screening we will be joined by Gal Schwartz who produced the film. He will tell us about how they made the film, behind the scene issues and answer questions. The film has English subtitles. Members pre-paid NIS 60 Members at door NIS 70 Non-members NIS 80 E 5/6/18

Netanya AACI Coffee and....Should we apply Jewish Law? with Adv. Aharon Korzen

Where: Shmuel HaNatziv St 28, Netanya

Description:

The recent Nation-State Law reaffirmed that Jewish Law could be applied in the absence of a legal solution to an existing problem (Lacuna). Is this a good idea? Who will decide on the Jewish Law and would this be restricted to Jewish Judges or will non-Jewish Judges be able to make a decision? Adv. Aharon Korzen will discuss this interesting and topical subject and will relate some of the amusing examples with which he has been involved. Members NIS 15 Non-Members NIS 20 E: 19/8/18

Box Office performance of Play "War Mother", a one-man show with puppets

Where: Shmuel HaNatziv Street 28, Netanya

Description:

Presented by Author Adolphe Nysenholc. Two dead mothers fight over their son: The young mother who perished in the Holocaust and the old foster mother who saved the child during the war. Which one should the child go with when his time comes? This play examines the inner torment of that hidden child, seventy years later. As a modern presentation of a Solomon Judgement it is based on the author's own life as an orphan of the Holocaust whose parents were deported to Auschwitz in September 1942 and did not return. Three weeks before this they placed their three-year old child, Adolphe, with a Flemish family who raised him. Nysenholc currently holds the position of Professor Emeritus of the Free University of Brussels and is an award-winning playwright. His works are honored in the Garden of the Righteous in Yad Vashem. War Mother, which has been shown in 7 countries, is a personal homage to them. Members pre-paid NIS 40 Members at Door NIS 50 Non-members NIS 60 E: 20/2/18

9:30am Netanya New Art Classes Orientation Meeting With Ruth Lenk

Where: Shmuel HaNatziv St 28, Netanya

Description:

We are delighted to introduce our new art teacher Ruth Lenk. For over 30 years, she has worked in the field of Art, creating in-house graphics for McDonnell Douglas Astronautics Corporation, designing publications for The Jerusalem Post, teaching elementary school Art in Azerbaijan and Israel, or running workshops for the underprivileged in South Africa. Creating Art has been more than her career, it has been her passion and she would now like to share that passion with Netanya AACi members. Classes will be both for those without any artistic background, those who want to improve their skills and for experienced artists who just want to have some fun. The course will cover the basic elements of art, focusing on line, color and composition, using a variety of mediums and techniques. To find out more join Ruth for an orientation meeting at 9.30am on Wednesday 10 October and classes will begin on Wednesday 17 October. Members NIS 60 per lesson payable monthly E: 26/6/18

Netanya AACI Lecture with Pinchas Landau - Dancing with Bears: Israel's Romance with Russia - Causes and Prospects

Where: Shmuel HaNatziv St 28, Netanya

Description:

Born and educated in London, Pinchas Landau has been living in Israel since 1976 and is one of the country's leading independent analysts and commentators on Israeli and global economic and financial developments. Prior to establishing an independent consultancy in 1997, he was for many years one of Israel's most prominent financial journalists. Today, his original and insightful analyses are available in written reports, as lectures and presentations and via private consultations. In 1996, Pinchas launched The Landau Report, a newsletter and consultancy service addressing the needs of foreign firms and financial institutions active in Israel and the Middle East. Its unique format examines the trends underlying all the key areas of relevance to individuals and institutions with investments or business in Israel, and covers Regional Developments, Domestic Politics, Macro-Economics, Corporate Affairs and Financial Markets. The mega-event in the Middle East this decade is the deliberate withdrawal of the US from its hegemonic dominance. Russia has stepped into the vacuum thus created. One of Netanyahu's signal achievements is the establishment of a strong rapport between Israel and Russia and between himself and Putin. What does Russia want? Why is Israel its natural partner? How does the anti-Russia mania in the US and UK impact the Middle East in general and Israel in particular? Can Israel remain an ally of the US whilst maintaining close ties with Russia? All day Netanya AACI Tiyul "Dream a Dream" with Guide Dani Margolis

Where: North of Israel and Kinneret

Description:

Of my Kinneret, Oh my Kinneret. Did you exist? Or did I dream a dream. Rachel Bluwstein Our October tiyul will follow the footsteps of Israeli poets and poetry about Israel. Susan Olsburgh, who leads our monthly Poetry meetings at Netanya AACI will accompany the tour. After a short stop on our way out of Netanya we head north to S'dot Yam to hear about Hannah Senesh. We will continue on to the Kinneret Courtyard (Hatzar Kinneret), the beating heart of the Second Aliyah at the turn of the 20th century. Young people fleeing from pogroms arrived in a desolate country with the cherished dream of establishing a national home for the Jewish people by the work of their own hands. From these humble beginnings, but based on the firm principles of self-reliance, equality, social justice and co-operation, the Yishuv emerged as the cornerstone of the Kibbutz and Moshav Movements which became the foundations of the emerging new State. A short distance from the Courtyard is the Kinneret Cemetery where many pioneers and leaders of the Labour movement are buried, including Berl Katznelson, Moses Hess and Nachman Syrkin. Located on the shore of the lake, many come here to pay homage to the Hebrew poet, Rachel Bluwstein, and musician and songwriter, Naomi Shemer. After our lunch break there will be a short poetry session, inspired by the poets featured in our day. On our way home we will visit Binyamina to hear about Ehud Manor. Full program, details and prices to follow. E: 5/6/18

Netanya AACI Visit to Exhibition of Jewish Humor's new program "Am Israel Ha!" presented by Comedian Benji Lovitt

Where: Beit Hatefusot/Museum of the Jewish People, Tel Aviv

Description:

Guides from Beit Hatfutsot (Diaspora) Museum will show us the Synagogue Hall Display Hallelujah! Assemble, Pray, Study - Synagogues Past and Present and the new temporary exhibit Let There Be Laughter - Jewish Humor Around the World. What makes Jews so funny? And how did "The People of the Book" turn out to be superstar writers, producers and comedians? The museum takes a lighthearted look at the origins of Jewish humor and the major contributions of Jews to the rise of a global industry. After our guided tour of the exhibitions, there will be time for a coffee break at the onsite kosher eatery (not included in price). We then meet up with noted comedian Benji Lovitt, for a unique conversation where we explore the topics of Jewish humor, identity, and where exactly the "boundaries" lie. Benji's observations on Israeli society, combined with his lifelong involvement in Jewish education, create a hilarious narrative that has brought smiles to faces all over the world. Program takes place at Beit Hatfutsot Museum, Tel Aviv. Netanya AACI Guest Lecture "Can You Please All of the People All of the Time?" with Mayor Oded Ravivi

Description:

Oded Revivi, Mayor of Efrat, is a statesman, orator, lawyer and prominent advocate for the Israeli communities in Judea and Samaria. His stance on Israeli settlements is clear: They are here to stay and any future peace agreement will have to take that reality into account. He is also a staunch advocate for co-existence and fostering improved relationships with Efrat's neighboring Palestinian villages. Under his leadership the city of Efrat has grown by leaps and bounds which has necessitated the building of new schools and kindergartens, community centers and synagogues. An outspoken critic of Israel's security barrier, Oded was instrumental in having its route changed and has campaigned for its total removal, with the belief that Israel should be building bridges with its neighbors, not fences. In July 2016, Oded was appointed Chief Foreign Envoy of the YESHA Council, acting as the official political representative of the Israeli settlement movement to the international community. His role includes advocacy trips to the major seats of government worldwide as well as regular meetings with foreign diplomats and journalists based in Israel and abroad to explain the facts on the ground. 9am Netanya AACI Visit to The New Natural History Museum

Where: Tel Aviv

Description:

Get up close to nature by signing up for an exciting visit to the brandnew Steinhardt Museum of Natural History (Tel Aviv) which opened the doors of its stunningly designed modern building this summer to receive its first visitors. Having brought together collections gathered over decades, the Steinhardt Museum now offers millions of items in displays that document the fauna and flora of the Eastern Mediterranean in the past century, alongside the history and development of the human species. The museum also offers a wide range of special exhibits based on its scientific collection that includes stuffed animals and skeletons that tell the story of nature or represent phenomena unique to those animals. In addition to just appealing to the public's enjoyment, the Steinhardt Museum is also used by hundreds of scientists and professionals from Israel and overseas for educational and research purposes that include the management and conservation of ecosystems and the sustainable utilization of natural resources. More than 100 research students now use the collection annually for their MSc and PhD projects. The museum, built on four floors, incorporates all modern amenities, including diverse multimedia content and facilities for the disabled. Our guided tour will take us around the exhibition with free time for individual browsing. Netanya AACI Israeli Literary Workshop with Michal Fram Cohen - The Works of Yochi Brandes

Description:

Israeli Literary Workshop Two Novels by Yochi Brandes: Led by Michal Fram Cohen who holds a Ph.D. in Hebrew Literature from Bar-Ilan University. She currently works as a Hebrew translator/interpreter and has a special interest in early Hebrew writers. Michal was the recipient of a grant from the Center for the Study of Women in Judaism at Bar-Ilan University. Israeli author Yochi (Yocheved) Brandes grew up in a Hassidic family. She has a BA in Biblical Studies and an MA in Judaic Studies and has taught Bible and Judaism. Her writing is rooted in her upbringing and her education, but she created new and bold interpretations of well-known Biblical and Rabbinic narratives. Yochi published ten novels, of which two were translated into English: The Secret Book of Kings (Melachim Gimel, 2008) and The Orchard (Ha-Pardes shel Akiva, 2012). The first offers a counter-narrative of the biblical events depicted in the books of Samuel and Kings, from the establishment of the Kingdom of David to its splitting into the Kingdoms of Judea and Israel, from the perspective of the descendants of the House of Saul. The second offers a retelling of the life of Rabbi Akiva from the perspective of his wife Rachel. Our workshop will compare each novel with its Biblical or Rabbinic origins, and will also compare the extent of deviation and subversion of the original narratives. Copies of the excerpts discussed will be provided. Both books are available in our library. Members pre-paid NIS 25 Members at door NIS 30 Non-members NIS 40 E: 26/6/18

Netanya AACI Guest Lecture with Bassem Eid, Human Rights Expert, Political Analyst, Commentator, Journalist (Re-scheduled)

Description:

Bassem Eid is a Jerusalem-based political analyst, human rights expert and regular commentator on Arab and Palestinian affairs. Bassem was born in the Jordanian-occupied Old City in East Jerusalem. In 1996, in response to the deterioration of the human rights situation under the PA, he founded the Palestinian Human Rights Monitoring Group (PHRMG), which monitors abuses committed by the PA and deals to some extent with Israel. It is a non-partisan human rights organization, dedicated to exposing human rights violations and supporting a democratic and pluralistic Palestine. He has written extensively on the subject of UNRWA reform. He is an outspoken critic of the Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions movement. Bassem has traveled widely as an expert on the Palestinian-Israeli conflict, addressing multiple international conferences and governmental bodies. He has published numerous papers on the subject of Human Rights in the Israeli- Palestinian conflict and is a frequent contributor to The Jerusalem Post and Times of Israel. He is a dynamic and prolific speaker who has been the recipient of international awards for his work on civil and human rights, seeking dignity for his people and peace with his neighbors. Bassem Eid will speak about the Internal Palestinians Politics and Conflicts and explain to us how the Palestinian Authority and Hamas hold back their own people and any hope for a solution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. 9am Netanya AACI Tiyul "Secrets, Spies & Video Tapes"

Where: The Israel Intelligence Center

Description:

Please note this is a repeat program after our very successful previous trips. Near a cinema multiplex and a non-descript highway junction outside Tel Aviv is the place where Israel's secrets go when they get told. The Israel Intelligence Heritage & Commemoration Center (IICC) is devoted to shedding light on some of the more secretive chapters in Israel's history. Its mission is to honor, remember and preserve information about members of Israel's intelligence agencies, and to commemorate the fallen from all branches of Israeli Intelligence. The Center, a non-governmental organization, was created in response to public pressure for more transparency. During our visit we will see two films: The Power of Knowledge, which describes the process by which the intelligence community manages current threats, and an historical documentary film which tells of the IICC's involvement in the rescue of Jewish communities in peril in Yemen, Iraq, Morocco, Ethiopia and other regions. From there we will visit the Terror Exhibition Display which illustrates tangible threats, propaganda, the perpetuation of hate and the intelligence war against terrorism. After our lunch break we will hear veterans of the intelligence community telling stories of missions in which they were involved. To end our visit we will walk through the Commemoration Maze. Please bring your own sandwiches for lunch. There will be coffee, tea and biscuits throughout the day. Price for members NIS 140 Depart: Young Israel 9.00am, Kikar 9.10am Return: Approx. 5.00pm E" 19/8/18
