

Democracy in Israel

Guest Lecturer:

DAN BIELSKI

8.00pm Monday 19 March

Dan Bielski was born in 1956 in Israel to Holocaust survivors. His parents fled Germany to Bolivia in 1940 and arrived in Israel in 1953.

He holds a BA in Economics and Political Science from Tel Aviv University, and a PhD in Communication from the State University of Wisconsin.

Mr. Bielski is senior News Editor and the Director of the Newsroom at the Israeli National Radio. He also serves as an economic reporter for Israeli Radio. He was previously the Chief News Editor of the Israeli daily newspaper, Maariv. Mr. Bielski served for two years as a Jewish Agency emissary in the Midwest.

Dan will be talking about Israeli democracy. He will review some of the latest developments by Israeli lawmakers, which, together with the politicization of journalism and Israeli demographics, are considered by some to be a threat to Israeli democracy.

Program takes place at Netanya AACI, 28 Shmuel Hanaziv, Netanya.

Tickets: AACI Members Pre-paid NIS 40, at door NIS 50, Non-members NIS 60
