Dan Bielski was born in 1956 in Israel to Holocaust survivors. His parents fled Germany to Bolivia in 1940 and arrived in Israel in 1953.

He holds a BA in Economics and Political Science from Tel Aviv University, and a PhD in Communication from the State University of Wisconsin.

Mr. Bielski is senior News Editor and the Director of the Newsroom at the Israeli National Radio. He also serves as an economic reporter for Israeli Radio. He was previously the Chief News Editor of the Israeli daily newspaper, Maariv. Mr. Bielski served for two years as a Jewish Agency emissary in the Midwest.

The modern world has brought us aggressive investigative journalism and instant media. Sometimes it is difficult to know whether journalists are reporting the news or making it. Join us to hear Mr. Bielski tell us if and how journalism and the media affect the political agenda in Israel.
