

The First Time You Use Freading On Your Computer

Step 1: GET ADOBE DIGITAL EDITIONS

1. To use the Freading service on your computer, you must download a digital reader. We will use Adobe Digital Editions as our example. Go to Adobe Digital Editions and click on “Adobe Digital Edition” according to the appropriate operating system. A window will open up to download the application. Click save at the bottom right of the window and the application will download. Click the downloaded file and a window will open asking if you want to run the file. Click “Run”.

2. The application installer will run. Follow the instructions.

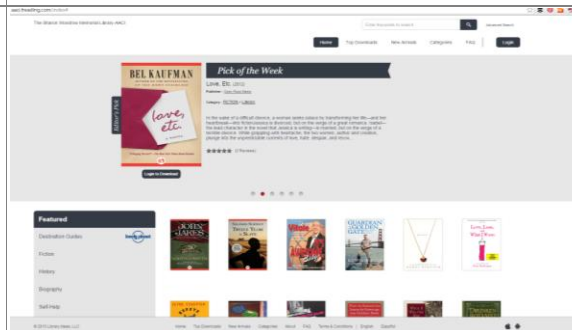

Every time you search for new Freading titles

3. Search for titles on the Freading website

Go to The Sharon Woodrow Memorial E-Book Library-AACI website:
<http://aaci.freading.com/index> Bookmark the site because you will start at this page every time you search for Freading books.

Searching for a Title

a. There are several ways to search the Freading site. You can browse top downloads, new arrivals, or by category, by clicking on the tabs near the top of the screen.

Welcome to the Freeding log in page

New Freeding users

Upon logging in with your membership from your library, you will see a custom page come up, with an easy 1-2-3 guide to enjoying eBooks.

- In the upper right corner of the page, you will see information regarding your account. Specifically, you will see a "library card". The library card is the amount of time that you may check out every week. This card is set by your library. If there is an adjustment of 1 book per week, and you have used one, the number will say 1/5.
- Checked-out books will cover in the following week. Every 4 weeks, unreturned books come up. An individual card is for 2 weeks and may be renewed for an additional 2 weeks.
- The library may have an expired book loan limit. If they do, you might receive a notice to return books, but you will be able to return or for the following week to do so.
