Description:

What does a black theatre company do on stage, you may ask? The answer appears rather confusing (when this researcher checked them out online) but there is no doubting its popularity; thrilling audiences worldwide for over 25 years. The following is taken from their website: ...The ensemble has developed its own style. It brilliantly uses the technique of black theatre, elements of modern dance, original costumes, mime and non-verbal theatre, as well as contact with the audience. Mystification, precise execution of visual tricks, playful authors, compelling performances by actors and dancers and the desire to have fun and entertain the viewer, all is aimed at achieving the goal set: to perform a live theatre for a live audience.... 10:30am Netanya AACI Lecture "Silent Letter" by Ambassador Yitzchak Meir

Where: Shmuel HaNatziv Street 28, Netanya

Description:

Yitzchak Mayer was born in Antwerp, Belgium, in 1934. His first memory is the bombing of the town on 10 May 1940 and what he believed were madmen, whom he watched from the window, shouting in Flemish "Jews out!" At the outbreak of World War II, his family fled, were captured in France, then escaped and lived under cover until his father was caught and deported to Auschwitz, where he died. His mother eventually found refuge in Switzerland with her two sons. They landed illegally in Palestine in May 1946, having been evicted from Switzerland. Yitzchak Mayer wrote Silent Letter for his mother 70 years later. It is the virtual letter she virtually sent into the unknown and where his father virtually followed their escape route. It is a rare book that recounts an unforgettable chapter of history but also has powerful contemporary relevance as it confronts the saga of desperation, of people on the run trying to escape from danger and certain death, driven by hope and the dream of finding and arriving at a safe place. Yitzchak Mayer has had a varied career, first teaching and then becoming Consul General in Montreal, Ambassador in Belgium and Ambassador in Switzerland. Join us to hear this distinguished speaker tell about his book Silent Letter. Members pre-paid NIS 25 Members at Door NIS 35 Non-members NIS 45 E: 15/5/17

Netanya AACI Program presented by Stand with Us - "Reflections of an Israeli Arab"

Video call:

https://plus.google.com/hangouts/_/netanyaaaci.org.il/communitycalend?hceid=Y29tbXVuaXR5Y2

Where: Shmuel HaNatziv St 28, Netanya, Israel

Description:

A talk by Yahya Mahamed & Richard Corman We welcome Yahya Mahamed who was born in Umm Al Fahm, an Arab city in northern Israel. Yahya had atypical Arab upbringing. He was indoctrinated from childhood to hate Jews and deny Israel's statehood. He began having regular interactions with "everyday" Israelis which challenged the negative views he had been encouraged to develop. Yahya recognized Israel's struggle for co-existence and desire for a peaceful future despite being surrounded by many strategic threats. After realizing that he had been intentionally misled, Yahya decided to do everything within his power to combat the negative stereotypes and demonization of Israel. Not long afterwards, he joined StandWithUs as an educator, sharing his experience and the truth about Israel to international groups. Our program has been arranged by Richard Corman, Development Executive of StandWithUs, an international, non-profit organization, which believes that education is the road to peace. StandWithUs is dedicated to informing the public about Israel and to combating the extremism and anti-Semitism that often distorts the issues. Richard will tell us about StandWithUs. Netanya AACI "Operation Wedding" Film and Q & A with film director Anat Zalmson

Where: Shmuel HaNatziv Street 28, Netanya,

Description:

In Leningrad in 1970 a group of young Jewish dissidents who were denied exit visas plotted to hijack an empty plane and escape to Israel. Under the disguise of a trip to a local family wedding, the hijackers bought every ticket on a 12-seater plane so that they would be the only passengers and no innocent people would be harmed. However, they were caught at the airport just before boarding the plane and were tried for high treason. Syla Zalmanson received 10 years in Gulag and her new husband, Edward Kuznetsov, received the death sentence. Tens of thousands of people in the free world campaigned for the 300,000 Soviet Jews who wanted to leave. Syla and Edward's daughter, Anat, had always been told that her parents were heroes. At the age of 29, she decided to relate her parents' story to the world. Anat travelled with her mother Syla, to retrace the group's journey from the day of the arrest at the small Soviet airport to KGB prison where 25 year-old Syla was kept before the trial. Her film reveals the full story of the group of civilians that changed history and cracked the Iron Curtain. The film uses archival footage and rare interviews with KGB Generals. This film is a powerful, emotional and exhilarating experience. Anat will join us for a Questions and Answer session after the film. 10am Netanya AACI Tiyul to Israel Museum & Kotel

Where: Jerusalem

Description:

This full day tiyul in Jerusalem combines a guided tour to the much acclaimed Maybe, Maybe Not exhibition at the Israel Museum together with a visit to the Old City. The Chinese artist Ai Weiwei, is one of the most influential members of the international art scene. This exhibition features powerful and visually captivating artworks combining sculpture, photography, video, and large-scale installations, such as his astounding 2010 installation which covered the entire floor of the Tate Museum in London. Weiwei was imprisoned without trial in his native China, due to his political activism and outspoken stance on human rights and freedom of expression, messages which are central themes in his art. In the cool of the afternoon, the trip will then proceed to the Old City for a new, state-of-the-art audiovisual presentation of the Second Temple, offered by the Western Wall Heritage Foundation. This audiovisual experience has combined the skills of computer experts and artists to create a fascinating and precise view of the Second Temple. Special goggles and chairs that swivel allow you to have a 360* perspective of standing at the Temple as it appeared many centuries ago. It is accompanied by in-depth information about the glory days of ancient Jerusalem and promises to be a most interesting "look into the past". Netanya AACI Coffee and.....BREXIT - a Toxic Impact on British Politics with Raymond Cannon

Description:

No less than four Prime Ministers of the United Kingdom - Margaret Thatcher, John Major, David Cameron and now Theresa May, have fallen victim to the xenophobic elements of the Conservative Party, for whom membership of the European Union (EU) and especially free movement of people, are an affront to British sovereignty. Raymond Cannon (a popular AACI speaker) will explain the electoral and parliamentary system that enables these upheavals, the makeup of the UK's component nations and their political parties. He will discuss the meaning of BREXIT, the catalyst for the current political turmoil and explore the considerable influence of the partisan press. He will also outline the structure of the EU, presently comprising - with the UK - 28 Member States. As a retired UK lawyer specializing in international business law, Raymond has wide experience of dealing with the EU and its institutions located in Brussels. He is author of Business Law of the European Union. Members pre-paid NIS 15 Members at Door NIS 20

Netanya AACI Guest Lecturer: Prof. Rabbi Daniel Sinclair "Are Halakhah and Democracy Compatible?"

Where: Shmuel HaNatziv Street 28, Netanya

Description:

Daniel Sinclair will discuss Are Halakhah and Democracy Compatible? The Experience of Israeli Law. The wholly disproportionate political influence exercised by the religious parties within the governing coalition is clearly having an effect on Israel's democracy and raises the question of whether the state is in danger of moving towards theocracy. In most free societies, religion is a personal choice and cannot be allowed to dictate or impose its beliefs on society as a whole. Israel claims to be a Jewish state without officially defining who is a Jew, thus giving ambiguity full reign; witness the controversy about running public transport or opening shops on Shabbat and perhaps more intrusively, exclusively informing the issues surrounding conversion, marriage and divorce. Professor Rabbi Daniel Sinclair is a British-born Israeli scholar of Jewish law (Halakhah) who specializes in contemporary Jewish medical ethics. He has authored articles and books on Jewish ethics and written about Israeli applications of Jewish law. He teaches at Fordham University and at the College of Management Academic Studies in Rishon LeZion and has taught at the Spertus Institute in Chicago. An Orthodox rabbi, Professor Sinclair has served as the Rabbi of the Edinburgh Hebrew Congregation and as Dean of Jews' College, London. He is a popular lecturer at the Avshalom Institute. 4:30pm Netanya AACI Tiyul "Netanya of Old"

Where: Netanya City Museum & Walking Tour

Description:

The Netanya City museum is in the building that was originally Beit Ora, a weaving workshop for blind girls which operated from 1958 until the early 90s. The display From Vision to Reality tells the history of the city, the vision of its founders who established orchards and avillage in the sands of the Sharon. But from the beginning, they envisioned a resort city – a Riviera. It began as a small rural settlement (moshava). Netanya took an active part in absorbing the immigrants on its beaches as well as in the underground struggle for the establishment of the State. During our guided visit we will hear about Netanya as a fascinating human mosaic, a microcosm of the State of Israel. From the museum, we will take a guided Herzl Street Awakes and Looks for Roots walking tour and will hear how Netanya was established from 1930- 1950 and listen to stories of Gan Hamelech, Cinema "Esther", Atzmaut Park, Bialik School and more.... Price for members NIS 45 Meeting Point: Netanya City Museum, 3 McDonald Street at 4.30pm Tour finishes at 7.00pm Limited number of participants – book early to ensure your place. E: 15/5/17

Netanya AACI Guest Lecture "Israel's Strategic & Security Challenges: Present & Future" with Moshe Ya'alon

Where: Shmuel HaNatziv Street 28, Netanya

Description:

Netanya AACI is honored to welcome former Chief of Staff and Defense Minister, Moshe "Bogie" Ya'alon as our guest lecturer. Ya'alon was born in 1950 in Kiriyat Haim, a suburb of Haifa. He was drafted into the Nahal Paratroop Regiment in 1968 and fought in the War of Attrition. He served as a reserve paratrooper during the Yom Kippur War and was part of the first brigade to cross the Suez Canal. After the war he returned to active service and went on to hold prominent combat commanding positions in both the paratrooper brigade and in Israel's most elite commando unit, Sayeret Matkal, during which he led many daring operations. In 1995, he became Head of Military Intelligence, a position that was crucial in shaping his world view as he was exposed to the level of incitement in Palestinian society. In 2000, at the onset of the Al Aqsa Intifada, he was appointed IDF Deputy Chief-of-Staff, and together with Chief-of-Staff Shaul Mofaz, led Operation Defensive Shield. In 2002, Ya'alon was promoted to Lieutenant-General and served as the 17th IDF Chief-of-Staff. During his tenure, he stood at the forefront of the war against Palestinian terror and succeeded in quelling it. In 2008 he joined the Likud Party, and following the 2009 election, was elected as a Member of Knesset and appointed as Minister for Strategic Affairs and Vice Prime Minister. In March 2013, he was appointed as Minister of Defense, instigating measures to strengthen the IDF and the security apparatus. He led the defense establishment during Operation Protective Edge in 2014, which led the years of quiet in the south. In May 2016, Ya'alon resigned as Minister of Defense and as an MK, following a series of differences of opinion with Prime Minister Netanyahu. Netanya AACI thanks Barry Shaw for arranging this lecture. Members pre-paid NIS 40 Non-members NIS 60 E: 13/6/17
